

2.62.100 Membership in employee organizations.

All city employees shall have the right to organize, join and participate or to refuse to organize, join or participate in any employee organization without fear of penalty or reprisal.